Dear Parents and carers,

As a result of today's freak weather, I have had to make some decisions to support the safety of our community via school closure today and some staff needing to go home a bit earlier than usual due to travel conditions.

With the information I currently have I expect school to be fully open tomorrow. We will, of course inform you if there are any changes regarding school opening tomorrow as swiftly as I am able to.

Unless you hear from the school, please assume school will be open as usual.

Thank you all for your support!

Best wishes

Mr Jones
